The Curriculum and Educational Policies Council (CEPC) shall serve as the primary advisory body to the Academic Senate and University administration on matters pertaining to the educational policies of the university. Normally changes in existing educational policies shall first be considered by this council.

The CEPC is subordinate to the Academic Senate, and, as such, all policies and regulations recommended by the CEPC shall be presented to the Academic Senate for approval, except for those matters specifically delegated to the CEPC or those matters to be presented directly to the administration.

The CEPC shall review, evaluate, and make recommendations to the Academic Senate regarding all new and existing policies and statements governing graduate and undergraduate curriculum, academic programs, academic standards, and educational policy, and may initiate recommendations for change for
