

issued concurrence on March 6, 2024.)

This program is designed to prepare the students to work effectively in public health informatics and technology to improve the ability of the community's ability to respond to public health challenges. Students may work for community programs, health services organizations, government agencies, and the private sector in data analysis, systems analysis, informatics, project management and design, research, or administration.

Prerequisite: Students must meet a minimum 2.5 GPA overall.

The Certificate in Public Health Informatics and Technology requires 12 units to complete per the requirements below:

Take the following course (3 Units):

- HSC 360 Public Health Informatics: The Role of Data (3)

Or one of the following:

-

EFFECTIVE: Fall 2024

Undergraduate Certificate

Academic Plan Code: HSC_CT01UG

College: 15, College of Health and Human Services

Department: Health Science