3. CCC membership brief

- x Mimi provided overview of CCC and constitution and membership of the committee.
  - o How do we communicate the things that we find we want to do?
- x Steve reminded the committee that before the HERI was crafted the committee voted to develop another instrument, but it was not approved by the Provost.
- x Deborah also shared her experience on the committee and conducting a campus survey and its campus impact/reception

4. Guest – Deborah Hamm from CFA – to share about CFA activities regarding shelter

- x CFA has been asking for keys for past three years to no avail waior keys fommittee meeting. They committee presented a list of questions and concerns that have partially addressed by Campus Police. Deborah also created shelter place kits that CFA will reimburse her for.

We do have a Shelter in Place video <https://www.csulb.edu/universitypolice/runhidefight-surviving-an-active-shooterevent>

- x Behavior Intervention Team (BIT) resource on campus
- x START program (countywide program) is beginning to be developed here on campus (Riya and Theresa)
  - o Useful training tips:
    - f How to deescalate an incident?
    - f Warnings can come to instructors via writing assignments, which can then be used to alert appropriate individuals to intervene appropriately
- x CARES Training Video: <http://web.csulb.edu/divisions/students/cares/>
- x Appears to be a vacuum in leadership around this issue; Deborah is the Safety Committee which is campuswide, seems to be coordinating these efforts.
  - o There was more discussion about the need for one committee9 (i)-ec49commi apSMCID 40 >>E

- o Mimi: we need to stay focused too on the kind of climate we want to create on campus.
  - x Building Marshals, holding a safety information meeting for ~~CC~~ Rhannon suggested that we check with other College Building Marshals about safety information.
5. Question of communication/in what venues do we & can we share information more publicly?
6. Review of CCC activities & priorities
