California State University, Long BeachResearch Foundation Engagement of Independent Contractors±Policy and Procedure Updated February 2013

All Independent Contractor Agreements must be approved in advance by the esearch FoundationHuman Resources

Department prior to the commencement of any services the Independent Contractor.

BACKGROUND AND DEFINITIONS

Occasionally, there may be need shortterm professional services that cannot be performed by existing employees. The use of an independent contractor may satisfy this need in some qualified situations. Although the classification of independent contractorside by ederal or state taxing agencies (i.the Internal Revenue Servides) and the Empoyment Development Department (D) respectively) we have set forth the following guidelines to aid in the appropriate use of independent contractors.

Independent Contrador - An independent contractor is an individuo alentity that is not affiliated with the University (CSULB), hereby referred to as ³ 8 Q L Y H \(\mathbf{U}\text{VIHe}\text{W}\subseteq \text{ULBResearch Foundation K H U H E \ U H I \(\mathbf{Research}\text{UFoWM}\text{Ration}\text{Who}\text{vho}^3\) is providing primarily professional or technical advice or services under a written agreement or engagement letter.

Employee - An employment relationship exists when the employees(earch Foundation that the right (whether or not it exercises the right) to supervise and control manner of performance as well as the results of the service by the individual (employee). When such a relation the performance as well as the results of the service by the individual (employee). When such a relation the performance as well as the results of the service by the individual (employee).

Independent contractors are in business for themselves and receive a fixed farm (stem) (state of the service as applicable and agreed supeantravel, lodging, meals, mileage, resources/materials, copy fees, Tetre.)

Research Foundations not required to withhold federal or state taxes (except for certain - Resident Aliens), or unemployment, social security, workers' compensation or disability insurance benefits from their payments. It is very important that individuals whose himself as employees on be setup as independent contractors due to the potentially severe financial consequences facing the Reptagreh (Foundation) for operation or disability insurance benefits from their payments.