

Open Forum 2.18.21

Today's open forum received over 10 pages of questions – to get all questions answered, we consolidated them into key themes. If a specific question is not answered today, please ask your chairs and deans. They know many of the questions you are asking. If they do not, please contact the chairs and deans.

The Library has been responsive to meeting the resource needs of faculty and students using the locker system. They are working with BBS to determine if they can partially open in a safe manner for study and research.

A great deal of information is on websites across the campus. The COVID-19 Reuniting the Beach site is regularly updated as well as our Academic Continuity site.

Teaching modes for fall:

Different colleges have different plans on how to meet limited re-population parameters. Check with your chair and Dean's office.
