

Education Specialist Preliminary Credential Program
 CSULB – College of Education
 Rubric for Professional Dispositions in Basic Credential Programs

1. Demonstrates the belief that all children can learn.
2. Values equity and fairness.
3. Values diversity and considers all points of view.
4. Exhibits dependability, initiative, enthusiasm, and follow-through.
5. Demonstrates appropriate self-esteem, flexibility, resourcefulness, and positive response to constructive feedback.
6. Engages in socially appropriate and professionally ethical behavior.
7. Collaborates and interacts professionally with colleagues, parents, staff, and the community.
8. Improves professional practice through continuous reflection.
9. Pursues opportunities to contribute and grow professionally.
10. Honors legal/professional obligations and follows regulations.

My signature indicates that I have attended and read material from Mandatory Advisement when admitted to the program, and, will review and adhere to the Program Policies outlined on the Education Specialist Website and meet these expectations with a professional disposition (expressed above) to ensure my continued enrollment in the CSULB Education Specialist Credential. <https://www.csulb.edu/college-of-education/special-education-credential-program-escp/program-policies>