

POLICY ON EMPLOYMENT OF GRADUATE STUDENTS
AS STUDENT ASSISTANTS, INSTRUCTIONAL STUDENT ASSISTANTS, GRADUATE ASSISTANTS, AND TEACHING ASSOCIATES

(This policy supersedes Policy Statements 95-03, 96-21, and 17-18)

This policy statement was approved by the Academic Senate on December 10, 2020 and approved by the President on January 26, 2021.

1.0 Preamble

California State University, Long Beach offers employment as Student Assistants, Instructional Student Assistants, Graduate Assistants, and Teaching Associates to a limited number of graduate students. Student employment on campus provides useful supportive services to the various academic and administrative programs and/or departments, offers students valuable experience related to their educational goals, and assists with financial support to help meet the cost of attending college. Therefore, employment of graduate students by the University should not be allowed to impede those students in the pursuit of their academic and professional goals.

This policy may not be interpreted in ways violating the Unit 11 Collective Bargaining Agreement. These policies shall be available upon request and shall be given to each Unit 11 employee in that department or unit upon being hired.

2.0 Roles of Student Assistants, Instructional Student Assistants, and Graduate Assistants

According to the California State University Classification and Qualification Standards issued by the Chancellor's Office Systemwide Human Resources, Student Assistants are "CSU students who work in various areas of a campus. Student Assistants perform duties ranging from unskilled to skilled and/or specialized, in a variety of positions that typically require the use of manual, clerical, public contact, and/or analytical skills. [...] The Student Assistant classification is distinguished from the Instructional Student Assistant, Graduate Assistant, and Teaching Associate classifications in that the Student Assistant does not perform academic related duties such as instruction, tutoring, grading, evaluating, research, and assisting faculty with classroom activities."

"Under supervision, Instructional Student Assistants [...] perform teaching, grading or tutoring duties for the majority of work hours in a given appointment in a given academic department or equivalent administrative unit over the course of an academic term. The majority of work performed in a given appointment in a given academic department or

Students unrepresented by bargaining units wishing to challenge their termination may do so in writing to the appropriate administrator before the start of the subsequent term.

4.0 Hours of Employment for Student Assistants, Instructional Student Assistants, and Graduate Assistants

4.1 Employment of a graduate student as a Student Assistant or Instructional Student Assistant is limited to 20 hours per week during the Spring and Fall semesters. At all other times, such employment is

6.0 Hours of Employment and Evaluation of Teaching Associates

- 6.1 Employment of a graduate student as a Teaching Associate usually should not be for more than 20 hours per week, normally equivalent to a maximum of six weighted teaching units of lecture or discussion sections or a maximum of eight weighted teaching units of laboratory sections.
- 6.2 The teaching performance of Teaching Associates, at a minimum, shall be subject to student evaluations using the same instrument as is used for faculty evaluations.

7.0 Simultaneous Employment

A graduate student may be employed simultaneously in two of the categories enumerated in this policy, provided they do not normally work more than 20 hours per week total during the Spring and Fall semesters. Exceptions to the number of categories may be made with the approval of Faculty Affairs in consultation with the college dean. A graduate student employed as a Teaching Associate in one department, however, may not be employed as a Lecturer or teaching associate in another department.

8.0 Workload

During the Spring and Fall semesters the total hours of employment should not normally exceed 20 hours per week, and the average number of hours per week shall not exceed 20 hours. Work beyond 25 hours in a given week must be approved by the relevant dean or dean's designee in consultation with the department chair. In all cases workload must conform with state and federal laws.

9.0 Change of Degree Program

If a graduate student employed by a department begins to pursue a different degree, either in another department at CSULB or at another university, the department chair of the student's original home department has the right to terminate the student's employment with at least two weeks' notice in writing. It is the responsibility of the graduate student to inform the graduate advisor of the original home department of a decision to seek a different degree. Evidence of this decision would include, but is not limited to, formal acceptance into the new degree program, enrolling in courses for the new degree, or taking oral or written examinations for the new degree.

10.0 Unit Policies on Teaching Associates

Each unit which employs Teaching Associates shall make available policy covering, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) the specific eligibility requirements for Teaching Associates;
- (2) the application procedure for Teaching Associates;

- (3) the criteria for the selection of new Teaching Associates;
- (4) the criteria for renewing and/or continuing Teaching Associates;
- (5) the training and direct supervision of Teaching Associates;
- (6) the duties and responsibilities of Teaching Associates.
- (7) the procedures and criteria for the evaluation of Teaching Associates; and
- (8) the procedures for res of Thes ofd dof and